In addition, John Carroll’s academic courses are aligned with the Catholic Curriculum Standards and the recommendations of the US Council of Catholic Bishops. The Honors/AP course of study is designed to challenge gifted students to pursue their studies at a greater depth. Courses at this level rely on the independent study, research, analysis, argumentation, and critical thinking involved with the highest level of academic work. Honors/AP courses are open to students based on academic ability, interest in subject material, and motivation of the student to excel in challenging courses.
The Advanced course of study is designed to prepare students for college level work and to develop a lifelong love of learning. COURSE SELECTION PROCESS
The course recommendation and selection process begins in the 3rd quarter of each academic year. In consultation with departments, current teachers make recommendations for the next level based on student performance, ability, and interest. Core courses are communicated to students and parents/guardians at the end of the 3rd quarter in writing and in conversation with Grade Level Counselors. Once core courses are established, students may select elective options based on personal interest and availability. Every attempt is made to accommodate student preference for electives. Schedules for the school year are made available in Renweb during the summer.

HOW TO MAKE A COURSE CHANGE REQUEST
Course change requests may be made through the Guidance Office during the Add/Drop period (the first 10 school days of the year). Students, parents, Counselors, and the Principal must approve all changes.

NCAA

John Carroll makes every attempt to offer NCAA approved courses. Students interested in participating in college athletics should check with the athletic director, college counselor, and team coaches early in their high school career regarding high school course requirements and NCAA eligibility. For more information visit the NCAA Eligibility Center at <http://www.eligibilitycenter.org/>.

CREDIT RECOVERY

Students who fail the first semester of a year-long course can recover first semester credit based on their improvement in the second semester. Students receiving an F in the first semester of a year-long course must make a minimum C to earn full credit for the year.

A student who fails a semester-long course or who fails one or both semesters of a year-long course (but does not satisfy the requirement above) must attend summer school or repeat the course to recover failing credit.
