False Addresses

Please note that giving a false address or the address of a friend or relative is illegal and subject to prosecution as fraud.

Giving a false address is also subject to civil penalties or a lawsuit. BCCHS has an internal system to actively investigate all cases where it has a reason to believe that residency has changed and/or false information has been provided. Residential verifications can occur at random times. All students with false addresses will be immediately withdrawn and transferred to their home school.
