About you

Available to commence at the College in Term 2 2024, you are an innovative, passionate and dedicated teacher, keen to contribute to our Humanities Department's teaching program. You are cognisant of current curriculum and pedagogical developments and initiatives, and consistently strive to provide an engaging learning experience for your students – one that reflects pedagogical best practice. You also understand the need for educational institutions to adapt and respond to our changing world. Flexible and agile in your thinking, you model a growth mindset which will enable you to support the College in its unwavering pursuit of excellence – thus preparing and equipping our students for the exciting future that awaits them.

You can demonstrate:

- experience in, and commitment to, effectively integrating technology into classroom delivery
- a commitment to nurturing the individual student
- a commitment to self-development and ongoing learning, and the desire to be part of a dynamic educational team
- tertiary qualifications in a related discipline

- current registration with the Teacher Registration Board of Western Australia
- National Police Clearance Certificate
- the ability to uphold and support the College's Anglican ethos and maintain a current Working with Children Clearance during your employment with the College.

About All Saints' College

All Saints' College is one of Australia's leading coeducational independent schools, catering to students from Pre-Kindergarten to Year 12. With a focus on developing students as individuals to become confident global citizens, the College's innovative and future-focused approach to education allows students and staff to explore diverse pathways and opportunities.

Situated on Gabbiljee (Bull Creek), the College's vast and landscaped 20-hectare property features state-of-the-art facilities, integrated natural environments, contemporary learning spaces, and unique community spaces for connecting and sharing including the College café, Wanju. ASC staff members form a core part of the diverse and welcoming College community and, along with our students, parents and community members, contribute to that "All Saints' feeling"—where diversity is celebrated, individuals bring their best selves, and learning through failing (or 'flearning') is encouraged.

Our mission

All Saints' College, in partnership with its families, community and the Anglican Church, empowers students to develop their potential, becoming confident, compassionate and committed to worthwhile service to the local and global communities.

Our vision

Making a positive difference in our world

Our values

- Empathy: seeking to understand the perspective and experience of others
Respect: for self and others, for community and environment
Integrity: acting with moral strength and grace, guided by humility and compassion
Courage: to be our best selves
