- We are a compassionate, caring, and diverse community.
- We act with integrity and respect.
- We embrace creativity and balance.
- We are proud of diversity and willingness to collaborate.

As our Speech and Language Pathologist, you will:

- Conduct purposeful, fun, and engaging assessments to understand each student's unique needs
- Collaborate with our exceptional teachers and specialists to develop imaginative intervention plans
- Build trusting relationships with students and families
- Equip students with strategies to unlock their communication potential
- Unleash your creativity in crafting personalized small group and 1:1 sessions
- See the spark in students' eyes when they grasp a new communication skill
- Use your passion for advocacy to champion students' needs across our school
- Grow professionally through ongoing training on innovative techniques

"Preparing students to become stewards of a just and sustainable world."

Required Superpowers:

1. Master Communicator: Your words unlock students' potential. You speak well, listen with empathy, and write with clarity.
2. Creative Assessor: You have a keen eye for identifying students' needs and hidden strengths. You craft personalized assessments that reveal the unique communication superpowers waiting to be unleashed in every child.
3. Intervention Innovator: No intervention plan leaves your desk without an infusion of imagination. You tailor strategies that spark curiosity and help students level up their communication skills.
4. Super Collaborator: From forging strong parent partnerships to aligning with teachers and specialists, you know the power of collaboration.
5. Patience and Heart: Armed with compassion, you guide students through frustrations.
6. Expert in Your Field: You are up to the minute and have an ever-growing toolkit of interventions
7. Highly Adaptable: You effortlessly customize plans based on students' changing needs, always ready to try creative new strategies.
8. Advocate: Your students have a fierce champion in their corner.

Qualifications:

1. Master's degree in Speech-Language Pathology or a related field.
2. Valid certification as a Speech-Language Pathologist.
3. Proven experience working with Pre-K-12 students with diverse communication needs.

We are looking for a talented therapist who shares our values of inclusion, innovation, and student empowerment. Together, we will create ripples of positive change in our students' lives for years to come.

Join our dynamic team to start this rewarding journey! Send us your one-page response to the above, along with your CV, all in one tidy PDF document to applyjob@aisdhaka.org.

Mission: AISD creates an academic and social environment based on American educational principles. We challenge students from an international community to achieve their potential, become life-long learners and contribute to a changing global society.
