

INTERNATIONAL DAY OF WOMEN
AND GIRLS
IN SCIENCE

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 10, 2024
11:00AM-5:00PM

AT THE MUSEUM OF ARTS & SCIENCES

Bring the whole family for a full day of activities as the Museum hosts an inspiring group of women.

11:00AM: Live “Flight Through the Universe” Planetarium Show

11:30AM - Talk with Carley Metcalf, Education Coordinator, Marine Discovery Center

12:00PM - Talk with Alexandra vonHawk, Art Conservator, vonHawk Labs

1:00PM - Talk with Dr. Sara Langston, Assistant Professor of Spaceflight Operations, Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University

1:00PM - The Little Star That Could Planetarium Show

2:30PM - Talk with Jessy Wayles, Community Engagement Coordinator, One Lagoon - Indian River Lagoon National Estuary Program

4:00PM - Keynote Speaker - Dr. Janet Kavandi, former NASA Astronaut and President of Sierra Space

EXHIBITORS/VENDORS: ERAU Amateur Astronomy Club, 101 Paws and Claws, 4118 Roaring Riptide Marine Discovery Center, First Robotics Team - A Byte Irrational, UCF, UCF's Exolith Labs, MOAS Hands-on Stations, Energy Station - Caitlyn Montgomery, MOAS Education Coordinator, and VCS Science Fair Winners, Society of Women Engineers

Free for members or with paid museum admission.

Free for children ages 17 and under.

352 S. NOVA RD., DAYTONA BEACH, FL | 386.255.0285 | MOAS.ORG

MOAS
MUSEUM OF ARTS & SCIENCES