

Industry Partners Involved In Our Program

Nurses (including LVN, RN, home health aide)
Medicine (M.D., Chiropractor, Naturopath)
Veterinary Medicine
Optometry
Audiology
Physical Therapy
Occupational Therapy
Speech and Language Therapy
Psychology
Nutrition
And more

Major Institutions providing support

Caltech
Huntington Hospital
Kaiser Permanente
City of Pasadena Public Health Department

Our business professionals support the academy by providing:

Guest speakers
Student mentoring
Internships
Financial support for HOSA
Advisory Board membership
Curriculum advising

Program of Study

PUSD Core Curriculum including English, Math, Science, History, Spanish, and Arts to meet A-G requirements.

NAF curriculum including specialized classes for health career students:

Anatomy & physiology
Health careers exploration
Global health
Biotechnology

Opportunity to earn International Baccalaureate Certificates through individual classes

College level course work through dual enrollment at Pasadena City College

Clinical instruction in the classroom from health care professionals

HOSA — Future Health Professionals

HOSA is a career student technical organization that provides skills based curriculum, leadership opportunities and competitive events at the state and national level. For more information go to hosa.org

College and Career Ready:

Opportunities for internships and job shadows in a variety of health care settings.

Opportunities for community service via special projects and participation in service clubs

Integrated projects shared among academic and career classes

Visits to local colleges and universities
Seminars at local hospitals

Open Enrollment Policy

All students at Blair High School are welcome to join the Health Careers Academy, based on availability. Students from within and outside of Pasadena Unified School District can apply to attend Blair High School and also apply to be part of the Health Careers Academy.

“A quote from a student can go here.”