GET PAID TO COMPLETE YOUR MASTER OF EDUCATION AT THE UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA

WE SEE YOU. We see how hard you've worked to get to where you are today. How you beat the odds to earn your degree. How you turned every can't into can. Every won't into will. We see the fire in you to blaze a path for the youngest learners who will follow in your footsteps. You want to help empower the next generation, and light a passion for learning that will never be extinguished. We see you, and we want to walk alongside you.

St. Anne's-Belfield School is seeking two talented, recent college graduates to join our Early Childhood Fellowship Program. These future educators believe that having great teachers from the start is essential to preparing students to become strong in body, broad of mind, tender of heart, and responsive in soul. During this two-year program, Fellows receive support for earning their master of education degree at the University of Virginia (UVA) School of Education and Human Development while gaining immersive experience as full-time teaching assistants at St. Anne's-Belfield School.

APPLY TODAY FOR:

- Full tuition and fees for a Master of Education (M.Ed.) in Curriculum & Instruction with a Social Emotional Learning Area of Emphasis. You must apply separately and be accepted to UVA.
- Salary, benefits, and housing stipend.
- Two years of immersive experience as a teaching assistant in the St. Anne's-Belfield Lower School, located just 2.5 miles from the UVA School of Education in Charlottesville, Va.
- Mentorship by experienced early childhood faculty at St. Anne's-Belfield.
