Nine Madeira Students Win Scholastic Art Awards

The annual Scholastic Art Awards program is the nation's longest-running, most prestigious recognition initiative for creative students in grades 7-12. Only 20% of the nearly 5,000 pieces of art submitted within our region are accepted. All artwork was judged by members of the Art Academy of Cincinnati guided by the three core principles of the Scholastic Art & Writing Awards; originality, technical skills, and the emergence of personal vision or voice.

Nine students from Madeira High School (MHS) received awards.

MHS student winners are Liz Max (Grade 12) Always Mine, Honorable Mention/Drawing & Illustration; Aidan Wick (Grade 12) Crepuscular Landscape, Silver Key/Digital Art; Ben Solinski (Grade 12) Date Night, Silver Key/Painting; Elizabeth Cuchra (Grade 11) Elliott's Mural, Silver Key/Painting; Madelyn Sams (Grade 10) Madelyn Cline Portrait, Honorable Mention/Drawing & Illustration; Kate Manzi (Grade 11) Rolled Paper Chinchilla, Gold Key/Mixed Media, Lindsey Cruz-Villeda (Grade 11) Rolled Paper Frog, Honorable Mention/Mixed Media; Isabella Sammut (Grade 10) Seahorse, Honorable Mention/ Drawing & Illustration; and Ava Tinsler (Grade 9) Selena, Honorable Mention/Drawing & Illustration.

Award-winning artwork will be on display at the Art Academy of Cincinnati from February 9 – 18. The regional awards ceremony will take place on February 9 from 5 - 8 pm. The Madeira High School art teacher is Jill Dulgeroff.
