District News: Lots to Celebrate This Week: Teacher Appreciation, School Nutrition Employees, and National Nurses Week! Several organizations focus on the first full week of May to recognize professionals in their field. This week, we celebrate teachers, school nutrition employees, and nurses. To each of you we offer our sincerest thanks—to teachers for your tireless dedication to students and their achievement; to nutrition employees for making sure students have wholesome food to energize them throughout the day; and to our nursing staff for keeping students healthy. You all play a critical role in the success of our district and for that we are deeply grateful!
