District News: Spring series of Superintendent Coffee Chats begins today. Superintendent Mike Scott will once again be holding Coffee Chats at locations around the District this spring. These casual, no-host drop-in events are designed to give parents and community members an opportunity to meet Superintendent Scott, learn more about the important activities going on in the District, and ask any questions they may have. Upcoming Chats are: 4/8, 8-9am @ Baseline Insomnia; 4/23, 8:30-9:30am @ South Store Café; 4/29, 7:30-8:30am @ Longbottom. Spanish translation available. Click here for the flyer.

District Kindergarten Fair is 4/3. Families of incoming kindergartners are invited to attend the District's Kindergarten Community Fair on Thursday, April 3, from 5:00 to 7:00 p.m. at Lincoln Street Elementary School (801 NE Lincoln Street). The event is free and features a real school lunch for all attendees, a fire truck, school bus, police officers, fun literacy and math activities, kindergarten registration information, a free book for each kindergartner, and more!
