District News: Teacher Appreciation Week! This week, and especially on Tuesday, May 7—National Teacher Day—we encourage students, parents, and community members to take a moment to thank the wonderful teachers they know for everything they do to develop knowledge and foster achievement among all students. The National Education Association (NEA) further suggests that people send Tweets (use their #thankateacher hashtag) and/or update their Facebook pages with words of thanks to a teacher who made a difference in their life.

National Nurses Week. This is also National Nurses Week! Many thanks to our team of nurses who care for the medical needs of students throughout the District!

Education Town Hall. On Tuesday, May 7, House Speaker Tina Kotek and Hillsboro Representatives Ben Unger and Joe Gallegos will host an Education Town Hall at Liberty High School from 6:30-7:30pm in the auditorium. Please join them to learn more about educational issues being debated in the 2013 Legislative Session.

Vote for Maisie! Ladd Acres 1st grader Maisie Davis one of 50 nationwide finalists in the 2013 Doodle 4 Google contest. Vote for her whimsical representation of her “best day ever” and help her win a $30,000 scholarship and $50,000 for the school!
