International Community School News

Hello ICS Families!

We just wrapped up our MS and HS parent listening sessions this Wednesday and Thursday. We collected so much great feedback from our parents in regard to strengths, challenges, and ideas of how we might improve student experiences in high school. While over 40 parents were able to participate, we know that the remainder of the community would like to provide feedback as well. As such, we have developed a brief survey with similar questions that were asked in the listening sessions. You can access the survey here. It will be open for parent feedback through Monday, February 19. Thank you in advance for taking the time to share your insights with the school.

Have a wonderful weekend with your families,

Jacob
