ATHLETICS REPORT- JEREMY CORWIN

- Mr. Corwin attended an Athletics directors conference with other athletics directors.
- Quarter 3 grades just posted some athletes on probation due to grades
- Spring sports- Oregon weather has caused some games to be rained/snowed out.
- Will be hiring a volleyball coach and swim coach or next year

PRINCIPAL REPORT- MARTHA GUISE

- Jag Court tapping (letting students know they were nominated) was a bit unusual as Jagfest is new to grades 9 - 11. This will be the first Jagfest for them.
- New bookkeeper Amanda Bailey
- First week of May planned to have update to the Bookkeeping software, will need to do paper receipts while that happens
- ESSR funds to add a dean of students for next year to support students who are off-track for graduation. They will track data and work with grad and academic coaches
- Staffing for next year- added Bilingual teachers for Dual Language classes. Will offer DL classes in Biology, Language Arts, Math, World Studies, and US History.
- Some CTE programs will be adding apprenticeships next year

- District is planning for the district strategic planning committees. Will be looking for parent representation on the committees to look at data and provide input on the 5-6 year plan.
- Ms. Guise is retiring at the end of the school year. Will be greatly missed! The district will communicate the plan for next steps, hiring plan.
