Four Hillsboro Schools Earn Top Honors from Oregon Association of Student Councils

Just ten Oregon high schools and seven middle schools received recognition for high achieving leadership programs

April 30, 2014, Hillsboro, OR – Congratulations are in order for the student council teams at Century, Hilhi and Liberty High schools, and for the leadership group at Brown Middle School, for earning top honors from the Oregon Association of Student Councils (OASC) at their Spring Conference, April 27 & 28, 2014.

Awards are given in four categories: Standard Prize, Merit Prize, Honor Prize, and Grand Prize. Each of the Hillsboro awardees earned the highest recognition of Grand Prize, which is an outstanding accomplishment.

According to OASC's press release: "In order to receive the award, programs must create and encourage activities that promote inclusivity among all students at the school and provide a series of events that includes a variety collection of different areas/disciplines in the school. Along with involvement in the school, they must also demonstrate that they are gaining valuable leadership and professional skills that they can take with them outside the school."
