b) The Superintendent will not allow the Board to be unaware of any actual or anticipated noncompliance with any Board Global Goals or Management Limitations policy, regardless of the Board's monitoring schedule.

The Superintendent of Schools is purposefully deliberate and concise in providing necessary information, not including information that would be more appropriate for an executive session of the Board of Education.

Conclusion: I report compliance

d) The Superintendent will not let the Board be unaware of incidental information it requires, including but not limited to anticipated adverse media coverage, threatened or pending lawsuits, or material external and internal/organizational changes. Notification of planned internal changes is to be provided in advance, when feasible.

I interpret "incidental information" to mean: information that will likely prevent the Board and the Superintendent's ability to pursue or attain compliance with Board policy.

I interpret "unnecessarily complex or lengthy form, or in a form that fails to differentiate among information of three types" to mean: information contained in the Board agenda that is not concise and/or easy to decipher in making a point.

Data Reported:

Individual Board packets provide timely and pertinent information within the agenda. This has been the Board of Education approved process since the adoption of the governance model. It has been a regular practice that incidental information is contained within e-mails and regular updates.

The Board has asked appropriate questions concerning the numerous Expectations of the Board reports that have been submitted to date. There has not been an occurrence when the Board has collectively determined that an Expectations of the Board report has been arduously lengthy or complex.

It is worth noting that, as allowable by Board Policy 2.D within the Governance Process section, the Superintendent of Schools does meet on a regular basis with the President and the Vice President of the Board of Education. Most often the topic centers on the construction of the agenda for the forthcoming meeting.
