

Carberry Elementary School

Emmett School District
Greg Alexander, Principal

Highlights:

- ★ Please see the February newsletter for Carberry February Information.

During January PD day Counselor Lynn Horton, Katie Walton, Miranda Wright (not shown) along with Greg Alexander shared with paras about playground rules and a wheel of strategies to help students process their recess issues with others.

- ★ During the 1st day back from Christmas break, Jan. 8th, Lynn Horton, Katie Walton(not pictured), and Greg Alexander (not pictured) went over playground rules and how to use the Wheel of Choices for solving issues at recess. We try to reteach after each break we have with students about appropriate ways to solve conflicts.

- ★
- ★ Josh Rountree plowing the front of Carberry with the district UTV. I was a little jealous and admiring from my office. Boys and toys.

★ Students selected to have lunch with the principal as a reward from our PBIS store. They can pick teachers as well. I let them listen to music as we eat our lunch together.

- ★
- ★ Feb. 8th was going to be the 100th day of school but was postponed to Friday, February 9th. Here is a group of teachers and students who were dressed up like they were 100 years old. I didn't need to dress up, they said I was old enough to be in the picture.
- ★ We have begun piloting IXL as an intervention and we will share the usage and student growth in the coming months.
- ★ Teachers were focused on writing instruction and how to utilize the HMH writing tools along with what they have learned from Lee Pesky and the TREE method of writing.
