

Upper School French Teacher

Reports to: Head of French Department

Minimum Qualifications:

- Bachelor Degree in a related field
- Teaching qualification

Responsibilities include:

- Planning and delivering a French language acquisition and/or French language and literature curriculum for students in the Upper School (Grades 6-12).
- Maintaining a learning environment in which individual student needs are supported, and each child is included, challenged and successful.
- Maintaining well-ordered, attractive and engaging classrooms and hallway space that visibly demonstrates learning goals and expectations that also visibly celebrates student achievements.
- Employing a variety of teaching approaches and strategies that assist individual students to learn, and to understand content from multiple perspectives, including an openness to new approaches.
- Promoting internationalism through the assignments completed by his/her students.
- Regularly assigns both formative and summative assessments in compliance with the schools assessment policy.
- Providing timely and appropriate feedback to students in print, in person and on ManageBac (Learning Management System).
- Offering opportunities for students to participate in local, regional, national and/or international academic competitions.
- Being regularly available to students in need of academic, social and/or emotional support beyond contact teaching periods.
- Contributing to activities outside of lessons, including (but not limited to) lunch and break supervision duties, clubs, student support, personal projects, extended essays, chaperoning trips, attending on- and off-campus school-related events, etc.
- Receiving and delivering feedback from/to all school constituents in a highly professional manner.
- Implementing school rules and policies in a professional manner.
- Working collaboratively with all colleagues, students and parents.
- Communicating effectively, proactively and in a timely manner with students, parents, administrators and colleagues.
- Continually establishing strong rapport with all colleagues, students and parents.
- Completing any additional tasks, as assigned by the Upper School Principal or designee.