

A 'Wild' reading incentive:

The Wild Thing, mascot of the Washington Wild Things, recently stopped by Avalon Elementary to help promote the school's spring AR reading incentive.

Students throughout the school will be striving to meet grade-based reading goals over the next couple of months to earn a field trip to a baseball game.

