

A collection of kindness:

More than a dozen Avalon Elementary staff members, as well as students in the school's Kindness Club, spent Martin Luther King Jr. Day preparing care packages containing personal hygiene items, socks, gloves and more.

The packages were delivered to local service organizations.

