

GOOD MORNING EASTLAKE!

February 13, 2024

HERE ARE TODAY'S ANNOUNCEMENTS:

- ATTENTION CLUBS! The yearbook is looking for your response and participation for your group photo, officer names, club roster, and logo if you have one! Check with your ADVISOR! They have been emailed the link to upload your club info! The deadline is tomorrow.
- Eastlake Robotics and Girls Who Code are excited to announce a collaborative event open to girls and other underrepresented communities. Groups of 2 to 3 will work together to construct a mini robot and program it! Meet us in room D125 after school today. (13). We will have snacks and music. Bring your friends!
- Congratulations to the following choir students for their successful participation in the Solo & Ensemble Festival contest at Redmond HS: Sambriddhi Adhikari, Ella Dent, Evie Dent, Hailey Chan, Topher Puri, and Ace Yatsuk.

- Hey Wolves! Come to the girls tennis interest meeting today room D213 at 3:35pm for information on the team, the season, and the sport. Tennis is a great way to meet new people, get some exercise, and have a great experience with a team. Whether you've never even held a racquet or you're planning on going to Wimbledon, girls' tennis is a great opportunity for anyone interested in playing tennis with your fellow lady wolves. See you later today!
- Eastlake Wrestling is headed to the Tacoma Dome for the Mat Classic State Wrestling Tournament this Friday and Saturday. Eastlake wrestlers moving on to State are Alex Cole, Rylan Miller, Zac Bishopp and Alexandra Walker. John Kindler secured the alternate slot. Congratulations and best of luck this week!
- Hey Wolves! Come out and cheer on the Eastlake Wolves girls' basketball team tonight as they face Woodinville in the second round of the WesCo Basketball Tournament! Tipoff is at 5:30 at Woodinville High School. Tickets can be purchased through GoFan!
- Now please stand for the pledge of allegiance
