

AMPD @ WINTHROP UNIVERSITY

ACCOUNTING, MENTORSHIP AND PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

THE PROGRAM

AMPD is a competitive program developed from a partnership between Winthrop University's College of Business Administration and PricewaterhouseCoopers (PwC). The program is devoted to increasing the number of underrepresented minorities in the accounting field with emphasis placed on preparing students for entry level positions in the accounting profession.

WHY ACCOUNTING

- Highly sought after skills
- Job opportunities
- Rewarding career
- Numerous career paths
- Professional certifications

WHAT WE OFFER

- Professional Development Sessions
- Tutoring/ Study Hall sessions
- Consideration for Internships, Externships and full-time positions
- PwC Mentor
- $2000 scholarship for top performing students
- Special Housing

QUALIFICATIONS

- Score at least a 500 on the MATH portion of the SAT or 18 on MATH portion of the ACT
- Minimum 3.0 high school GPA
- History of active participation in extracurricular activities
- Admission to Winthrop University as a Business Administration major with a concentration in Accounting
- Maintain 3.3 GPA (scholars) 2.5 GPA (members)

QUICK FACTS (2019)

- 6 out of 7 of the junior students have paid internships offered by PwC
- 5 students have been offered to attend PwC's externship at Walt Disney World
- More than half of the participants within the program have above a 3.5 GPA
- 11 participants were offered scholarships from the National Association of Black Accountants (NABA)
- All of the participants are members of NABA

FOR MORE INFO

Contact

Vanessa Valdez, AMPD Program Director
valdezv@winthrop.edu

Website

<https://www.winthrop.edu/cba/accounting/ampd/>

SPONSORED BY

College of Business Administration

