O’Leary and Marjorie Meece Social Studies Award

This award was established by the Meece family to recognize students with a high aptitude and interest in social studies. The selection is made by the social studies department.