

INSTRUCTION

World Languages

The School Board believes that instruction in world languages is designed to provide students with the insights and tools to interact with people from diverse cultures ~~in an effort to~~ become globally aware citizens.

~~Through the study of world languages, s~~Students will: acquire the linguistic, grammatical, and cultural knowledge and skills needed to apply for oral and written communication in meaningful contexts; develop the communicative skills needed to demonstrate understanding, express ideas and feelings, and exchange information in meaningful contexts; ~~apply the knowledge and skills needed for oral and written communication;~~ interact with others in spoken, signed or written conversations using a variety of formats; and, demonstrate ~~an~~ understanding of the diverse perspectives that are represented in their own and other cultures. ~~Students will interact with others in spoken, signed, or written conversations both within and beyond the classroom in a variety of formats.~~
