Hello.

So now your going to tell me what I meant or said? I included the definition of recent.

Asking for clarification from me might be helpful, such as county and town governments, the SCDE, BCSO, etc. When they want clarification they just call or email me. When I call them back, they talk to me.

You somehow still think a email is more accurate when you've demonstrated again, it's not and creates confusion on your end.

Sorry I confused you.

At the time of the request on January 10th, I was looking for recent documents, not new.

The document from Burr did not exist.

I asked for recent, as in the recent past.

Not "current or new"

I was looking for recent existing documents as of January 10th.

See the definition of "recent".

recent

adjective

US

/ˈriː.sənt/ UK

/ˈriː.sənt/

Add to word list

B1

happening or starting from a short time ago:

Is that a recent photo?

Have you been following recent political events?

In recent times/years/months, etc. there has been an increase in the amount of violence on television.

I'm maintaining my Jan 10th request as it has not been fulfilled based on the language I used.

Please provide me with the appropriate information I have requested, as of January 10th.

This is my FOIA request. I'll determine if I've received accurate information or not.

Thank you.

It is inaccurate to say you asked for documentation "prior to January 2024 as written in my request." You asked for the "most recent" which is what was provided.

You are welcome to submit a separate FOIA request for a specific date range: https://www.beaufortschools.net/about-us/public-infofoia-request/foiafoia-requests/foia-online-request-form.

Candace

Dear Dr Bruder,

Thank you.

My request as filed January 10, 2024.

I was looking for recent contracts, prior to that date.

Not current contracts.

May I have those contracts please for

1.the attorneys who advise the district administration,

2. the attorneys who advise the school board,

from prior to January 2024 as written in my request?

Thank you.
