

Nancy Windisch-Bio

Nancy Windisch is deeply honored to be considered for the position of Servite High School's Principal. With 18 years of dedicated service as Principal at St. Angela Merici and three years of enriching experience at Servite, she is excited about the opportunity to continue fostering academic excellence and spiritual growth within the Servite community and to guide the Servite boys into faith-filled leaders.

Her journey in education has been guided by a profound commitment to Catholic values, a commitment that extends to her personal life as well. Her marriage to her husband, Todd Windisch, for 33 years has been her partner throughout her career and they have been blessed with three children: Ryan, a Servite Grad of 2011, Amy, a Rosary Academy Grad of 2013, and Kevin, a Grad of 2022.

Nancy's background as a USC All-American Swimmer has instilled in her the importance of discipline, teamwork, and perseverance – qualities that have shaped her approach to leadership. Her academic journey includes a Bachelor of Science in Education and a Masters in Administration which have equipped her with the knowledge and skills necessary to lead with excellence. She supports and understands the way high school boys absorb knowledge by recognizing their diverse learning styles while addressing their academic growth and success.

She is excited about the opportunity to bring her passion for Catholic education and her years of experience to a new school community, where together, they can continue to inspire hearts and minds for generations to come.
