Learning Behaviour - Respectful/Resilient/Resourceful/Reflective/Relationships

Class	Child's Name	Type of Merit	Merit
3E	Kaylie	Resilience	Kaylie demonstrated a fantastic attitude to her learning this week in her maths and English learning. Well done Kaylie, great end to the half term!
	Joslyn	Relationships	Joslyn's new table is much more organised and focused since she has moved there. Well done for being a positive influence, keep it up!
3G	Myra	Resilience & resourceful	Myra has started to do her learning much more independently. She is writing the date and LI now without being asked and in maths lessons is using resources to help her complete her learning independently. Well done Myra - we're all so proud!
	Uzi	Reflective, resilient	Uzi has started to participate much more frequently in class discussions. He is a more active learner and is engaging more with the learning - very good job, Uzi!
3H	Wranga and Arunteja	Reflective and Resilience	Both children have reflected well on the advice given to them by adults and have worked hard to improve their focus during lessons. They now have a better attitude towards their learning and are making excellent progress. Well done!
4D	Amira, Bosley and Yusef	All 5R's	Bosley, Amira and Yusef have been fantastic members of 4D this term. They always go above and beyond in every aspect of their learning. Keep it up!
4K	Mia and Ethan	Resilience	Mia and Ethan have displayed amazing contributions in the Maths lessons this week. They have mastered converting improper fractions to mixed numbers. I am very proud of you mathematicians!
	Harmony	Resilience Reflection	Harmony demonstrated focus and determination in our phonics session. Even when faced with a particularly challenging activity. She blanked out the distracting behaviour of others, reflected on what the task required and completed it successfully. Well done Harmony, you showed a solid work ethic and the benefit of seeing a challenge through to the end. Never doubt the power in you!
4U	Dhruvika, Rudransh, Prisha, Ritika, Sheryl, Arthur.	All 5 R's	This week I have been looking at the children who are always on task, always doing their best in every lesson, who are respectful in all school settings to both adults and children, and these were the children in my class that came to mind. Thank you for being awesome every day. You make my day brighter!

5F	Jlla	Resilience	Jlla has not been feeling well this week, but despite this she has been continuously resilient with her learning, even explaining a fraction problem to the whole class. Well done!
	Adelina	Resilience	For trying really hard as a team player and as goal shooter in netball this week. As a result, her team won! Well done Adelina
5L	Nilan	All 5 R's	Nilan is a reflective learner who works extremely hard in class. He is kind to others and gives very good answers in class. Keep it up!
	Siona	Reflective	I have been very impressed with Siona's contributions to class discussions about Galileo and our Space theme. Her answers are insightful and take our learning as a class to a deeper level.
5P	Shreyan	Reflective	I have noticed such a change in Shreyan's contribution to class discussion as well as the learning in his books. Shreyan is going above and beyond to ensure that his learning, in particular his writing, is the best it can be. Well done Shreyan - keep going!
	Iqra	Resilience	Iqra wrote a fantastic diary entry based on Galileo, which she managed to complete, despite not being here for the research. Iqra was willing to tie the research and writing together and was able to produce a brilliant diary entry that was full of modal verbs.
6A	Vinuka	Resourceful	Vinuka has made sure to use keywords from his learning in guided reading to enhance his diary entry as a Roman soldier. Well done!
	Ritisha Rayansh, Vivan and Ashwant	Reflective	These children continue to ensure that their STEM sentences are written with precision. They give detailed examples and are always willing to share them with the class.
6I	Aratrika and Akash	Resilience	Mrs Iwin is extremely proud of these two children. They always complete their maths learning to a high standard and answer DIGGING DEEPER questions with brilliant mathematical language. They are not afraid to give evidence to explain even further. Well done mathematicians.
	Siva	Resilience	Siva has really changed his attitude towards his learning. He listens to constructive feedback and uses this to help improve his work. Mrs Iwin is proud of his concentration and positive mindset. Well Done!
	Jaelon	Relationships and resilience.	Jaelon has been a great performer during his drumming lessons the past 2 weeks! He has shown lots of confidence while being watched by members of breakfast club who are really enjoying his rhythm before they go to class!
	Vihaana	Resourceful	Dr Vihaana!

			Vihaana has really impressed everyone with her knowledge about evolution. She has conducted her own research and shared wonderful facts about DNA, inherited characteristics and even chromosomes. She really is a Scientist in my eyes. Well done again you're living up to your new name!
6M	Eliana	All the 5Rs	Eliana is such a fantastic role model, who respects and is kind to everyone. She never complains about anything and is such a brilliant learner, Eliana wants to do better and puts in a lot of effort in everything she does. You are amazing and be proud of yourself.
