DHS celebrates October as College and Career Month

The Davison High School Career Center and Counseling Office staff have worked hard at setting up some very cool activities for our students for College and Career Awareness Month, which is celebrated in October.

Malerie was one of the first week's raffle winners.

Several universities are doing on-site admissions at DHS. Students who are interested in applying are given the opportunity to apply while the representative from the college is visiting at the school.

"Why is this opportunity so unique and exciting?" asked DHS Counselor Amy Hyrman. "Because our students find out if they are accepted to the college of their choice immediately and many times find out if they qualify for scholarships from the institution!

During the first week of October, there were representatives from 14 different postsecondary institutions and 210 students who attended at least one meeting. More representatives are scheduled to visit throughout the month.

Last week at Parent Teacher Conferences, several tables were designated for parents to learn more about college and military opportunities for their students.

More than 100 attended the Financial Aid Night on October 6 and weekly drawings are held for those students who participate in the College and Career Month activities. Winners from the week one drawing included Tyler Chapin, Bella Crimando, Emily Bruno, Jacob Brown and Malerie Salmons. Last week's winners were Shane Jones, Xavier Hill, Alexis Loyer, Peyton Henry and Sydney Joseph.

Hill students selected for September Table of Honor

Congratulations to Hill Elementary students Deacon Arthur, Loklan Freeman, Kinsley Adams, Cayson Reed, Sadie Hillier, Alexis Newsome, Monroe Hitchcock, Violet Odom, Carson McClanahan and Paige Oliver, all selected for the September Table of Honor. These students were recognized by their classroom teachers for being leaders of Cardinal Code in their classrooms and throughout the building. They sat at a special table during lunch with Principal Mrs. Jennifer Burke.

Congratulations to the following students who have been named Students of the Month for October at Davison High School and Davison Alternative Education.

9th Grade: Reese Maul
Nominated by: Mr. Wilcox
Mr. Maul is a fine young student. He is very intelligent, is respectful in class, and tries hard on every assignment. He shares out when asked, and is willing to help others in the class that need assistance. I have been impressed with his thinking ability, and he will continue to excel if he stays on the path to excellence.

10th Grade: Zoey Bednarski
Nominated by: Ms. Zimmer
Zoey is one of the most respectful, kindest and dependable students I know. She's been in Yearbook for two years; the only freshman in the class last year. I can always count on her to do what needs to be done and meet deadlines. I have also relied on her help when I didn't know how to do something with the yearbook; she even offered to come in on her own time to help. She is always smiling, upbeat and very friendly with all whom she interacts. Zoey is more than willing to help any student in the class, volunteers when I need extra tasks completed, and has the goal of being Chief Editor next year--I can't wait! Zoey is very involved as a cheerleader while balancing a job at a local restaurant, and she's not yet 16. I'm so proud of her!

11th Grade: Antanasia Cleveland
Nominated by: Ms. Pins
Antanasia is always willing to help others in and outside of class. In my class, she is always helping those that are struggling. She is a great leader in Student Council and leads all of her committees well. She does all this while also receiving great grades. She stays after school to help and get things done in the Student Council. She is always the first one to volunteer. All in all, Antanasia is an awesome, great, all-around student!

12th Grade: Ryan Sullivan
Nominated by: Ms. Heath
Over the last two years Ryan has helped out with a student in the school. At lunch, Ryan keeps the student occupied. Ryan has even taken to having lunch in a teacher's room with this student. As far as I know Ryan was not asked to do this by anyone. He has taken this on by his own volition. When this student is upset, Ryan can also calm him down. I'm very proud of Ryan for what he has done with this student. Not just for me or the other teachers but he is helping this student as well. Ryan is a wonderful young man. He saw a need and took control himself. Thank you Ryan.

Ryan

Alexis

DAE: Alexis Smith
Nominated by: Ms. Brooks
Alexis is a very bright student, she is always doing the right thing and respects everyone. She is always the first one to say good morning to all of her teachers and show a smile. She is sweet and courteous to the whole student body and is a wonderful addition to DAE.

Central Elementary has named its monthly Central Super Stars. One student from each class is chosen by their teacher for following the Cardinal Code and being a generous, helpful or kind friend to others.

HILL ELEMENTARY

HARVEST DAY

preschool primer

Do you ever wonder what preschoolers are doing all day? Do you wonder what they are learning while they play? Students and their families in our GSRP program recently participated in Family Curriculum Night. They explored how the daily lessons and activities in preschool benefit growth, development and learning. Each classroom had different activities to explore centered around art, gross motor, science, math, and sensory learning. It was a great night of fun and learning together!
