Former DTV student making headlines today

If you want a good laugh check out 2005 Davison High School graduate and former DTV student Paul Gerke in this video (link is below). Gerke, the sports director for KIVI-TV Channel 6 in Boise, Idaho, went all out for Halloween, delivering his full sports segment as Ron Burgundy, the character played by Will Ferrell in "Anchorman." Gerke's show was the lead story on Deadspin.com and was just picked up by USA Today. According to DTV Teacher Randy Scott, his former student has spent the morning doing media interviews from all over the country about his show.

DTV to debut 30-minute football special

While we're on the topic of DTV, be sure to watch the debut of "Varsity: The Story of Davison Football" at 7 p.m. Friday, Nov. 1, on DTV (Charter Channel 99).

The 30-minute special, written and produced by Davison High School DTV students, will feature interviews with players on and off the field. Catch Varsity Coach Jake Emmendorfer who, in NFL Network-Live fashion, agreed to wear a DTV microphone and be followed for a game and see the interview of DHS alums and former Cardinal teammates Caleb Forr and Ryan Hanshaw as their teams, Saginaw Valley State University and Wayne State, respectively, go head to head this season. Coverage of Homecoming 2013 is also included and DTV reporters interview community members about what this annual school spirit-filled event means to them.

The "Varsity: The Story of the Davison Football" special will continue to air at noon and 7 p.m. over the weekend. Or, you can watch the show online at <http://www.nfhsnetwork.com/events/74417>

Hall named Head Coach of the Year

Davison Middle School Teacher and Varsity Wrestling Coach Roy Hall has been named the Division 1 Head Coach of the Year by the Michigan Wrestling Association. Roy has received numerous awards and recognition over the years for his success coaching wrestlers. He will receive his award on November 7 at the Fall Hall of Fame Banquet in Battle Creek. Congrats!

Where futures begin

A Fully Accredited District

Cardinal's Nest youngsters trick-or-treated at Administrative offices.

Above, DMS students Samantha Lorf (left) and Ann Minto carved the world into a pumpkin for their teacher, Mrs. Jan Crawford. The two spent about three hours on the project, carving North America, South America and Greenland on one side and Australia, Europe and the Antarctica's on the other. "Never in 24 years of teaching have I had a kid carve a pumpkin for me," Crawford said. "It was so cute and to do that for me just made my week!" Below, they may all be Spidermen but only one is the real Physical Education Teacher Tim Rutkowski (center in the mask). Right, Central Teacher Melissa Jones and PTO President Tiffany Beath (dressed as Minion).
