

Semester of Current Events--An elective geared for Seniors

Senior usually take because of the materials that are discussed are on high levels of understanding of what is going on in the world.

Current Events is designed to address the economic, political, and social effects of events as they occur. News items are analyzed and evaluated with consideration given to the personal, local, state, national, and global impact of each!

