Dear ECS Community,

The Head of School Search Committee met for the first time last week, and I am very encouraged by the group the Lord has assembled for this important task.

As we begin the search process, we first want to hear from you, the ECS community. We want to know what matters most to you as we select our next Head of School. We ask that you please take five to ten minutes to answer four questions in the attached survey by Monday, February 12. We will consider this input as we formulate our profile by which we will evaluate candidates for the next ECS Head of School.

Thank you for taking the time to participate in this survey and sharing your thoughts with the Head of School Search Committee.

Clayton Floriani
Chair, Head of School Search Committee
