

DAUNTSEY'S SCHOOL

WHISTLEBLOWING POLICY

1. Honesty and integrity: The School is committed to conducting its business with honesty and integrity, and we expect all staff to maintain high standards in accordance with the Code of Conduct for Teaching and Support Staff. All organisations face the risk of things going wrong from time to time, or of unknowingly harbouring illegal or unethical conduct. A culture of openness and accountability is essential to prevent such situations occurring and to address them when they do occur.
2. Aims: The aims of this policy are to:
 - a. Encourage staff to report concerns and suspected wrongdoing as soon as possible, in the knowledge that their concerns will be taken seriously and without fear victimisation, subsequent discrimination, disadvantage or dismissal.
 - b. Confirm that reported matters will be investigated as appropriate, and an individual's confidentiality will be respected;
 - c. Provide staff with guidance as to how to raise those concerns; and
 - d. Reassure staff that they should be able to raise genuine concerns without fear of reprisals, even if they turn out to be mistaken.
3. Staff: This policy covers all employees, governors, consultants, contractors, volunteers, work placement students, casual workers and agency workers.

Wrongdoing at work

4. Whistleblowing: Whistleblowing is the disclosure of information which relates to suspected wrongdoing or dangers at work. This may include:
 - a. Criminal activity;
 - b. Safeguarding concerns (see paragraph 9 below);
 - c. Failure to comply with any legal or professional obligation or regulatory requirements;
 - d. Miscarriages of justice;
 - e. Danger to health and safety;
 - f. Damage to the environment;
 - g. Bribery;

- h. Financial fraud or mismanagement;
 - i. Other unlawful or unethical conduct in the workplace, and/or
 - j. The deliberate concealment of any of the above matters.
5. Whistleblower: A whistleblower is a person who raises a genuine concern relating to any of the above. If you have any genuine concerns related to suspected wrongdoing or danger affecting any of our activities and such disclosure is in the public interest (a whistleblowing concern) you should report it under this policy.
6. Grievances: This procedure should not be used where you have a complaint relating to your personal circumstances in the workplace. The Staff Grievance Procedure should be used in such cases.
7. Detriment: Provided that this procedure is used appropriately and correctly, you will not suffer any detriment as a result of reporting a suspected wrongdoing.
8. Advice: If you are uncertain whether something is within the scope of this policy you should seek advice from the Bursar, Head of HR, the Designated Safeguarding Lead, Protect, the NSPCC whistleblowing helpline or the Modern Slavery helpline.

Safeguarding

9. Safeguarding: Nothing within this policy is intended to prevent staff from complying with their statutory obligations in accordance with Keeping Children Safe in Education (DfE, September 2023). In particular:
- a. Safeguarding/child protection policy: If you have any concerns about a pupil's welfare, action should be taken immediately (even if they are low level concerns). You should report the concern to the Designated Safeguarding Lead or the Deputy Designated Safeguarding Leads. See the School's Safeguarding and Child Protection Policy for full information about what to do if you have a concern about a pupil, including what to do if the Designated Safeguarding Lead is not available.
 - b. Safeguarding - member of staff: You should raise any concerns about another staff member (even if they are low level concerns) with the Head, the Designated Safeguarding Lead, or if the concern is about the Head, with the Chair of Governors (without first notifying the Head) in accordance with the procedures in Appendix 4 of the Safeguarding and Child Protection Policy.
 - c. Whistleblowing policy: You should follow this procedure to raise concerns about poor or unsafe practices at the School or potential failures by the School or staff to properly fulfil its safeguarding responsibilities.

- d. The Modern Slavery helpline: The School is committed to the prevention of modern slavery. If you have any queries relating to modern slavery, please contact the Bursar. Identified instances of modern slavery should be immediately notified to the police. If you think you have identified an instance of modern slavery, or if you consider that you may be a victim of modern slavery you may contact the Modern Slavery helpline on 0800 0121 700.
10. All staff are trained so that they understand they are expected and encouraged to raise concerns they have, whether related to the safeguarding and welfare of pupils, the conduct of staff or other matters, during the course of their employment in accordance with this policy. Safeguarding children is at the centre of the School's culture and concerns should always be raised in accordance with paragraph 9 above. Staff who raise concerns about working practices at the school to the Designated Safeguarding Lead or an appropriate senior member of staff will be protected from detriment under this policy.

Confidentiality

11. Confidentiality: We hope that staff will feel able to voice whistleblowing concerns openly under this policy. However, if you want to raise your concern confidentially, we will make every effort to keep your identity secret. If it is necessary for anyone investigating your concern to know your identity, we will discuss this with you.
12. Anonymous disclosures: We do not encourage staff to make disclosures anonymously. Proper investigation may be more difficult or impossible if we cannot obtain further information from you. It is also more difficult to establish whether any allegations are credible.
13. If there is evidence of criminal activity then the Police will in all cases be informed.

Stage One

14. Procedure: You should disclose the suspected wrongdoing first to your Head of Department or Line Manager. In the event that they are involved in the suspected wrongdoing, you should proceed directly to Stage Two of this procedure.
15. Response: You can expect a response detailing to whom the disclosure has been notified or any action taken within seven days of your Head of Department or Line Manager becoming aware of the disclosure.

Stage Two

16. Procedure: If no response is forthcoming after seven days from your Head of Department or Line Manager, if you are not satisfied with the way in which your concern has been handled or if your Head of Department or Line Manager is involved in the suspected wrongdoing you should notify the Bursar, as appropriate.

17. Response: You can expect a response detailing any action taken within seven days of the Bursar becoming aware of the disclosure.

Stage Three

18. Procedure: If no such response is forthcoming after seven days from the Bursar, if you are not satisfied with the way in which your concern has been handled or if the Bursar is involved in the suspected wrongdoing, you should inform the Chair of Governors of the disclosure.

Protection from Reprisal or Victimisation

19. It is understandable that whistleblowers are sometimes worried about possible repercussions. We aim to encourage openness and will support staff who raise genuine concerns under this policy, even if they turn out to be mistaken.
20. No member of staff will suffer a detriment or be disciplined for raising a genuine and legitimate concern, providing that they do so in good faith and following the Whistleblowing procedures. If you believe that you have suffered any such treatment, you should inform the Head or Bursar immediately. If the matter is not remedied, you may raise it formally using the School's Grievance Procedure.
21. You must not threaten or retaliate against whistleblowers in any way. If you are involved in such conduct you may be subject to disciplinary action.

Malicious Accusations

22. False, malicious, vexatious or frivolous accusations will be dealt with under the School's Disciplinary Procedure.

Relevant external reporting

23. Outside body: The aim of this policy is to provide an internal mechanism for reporting, investigating and remedying any wrongdoing in the workplace. The law recognises, as does paragraph 9 above, that in some circumstances it may be appropriate for you to report your concerns to a relevant outside body including:
 - a. the local authority's Designated Officer for Allegations;
 - b. Children's Social Care;
 - c. the NSPCC;

- d. the Health and Safety Executive;
 - e. the Environment Agency;
 - f. the Information Commissioner;
 - g. the Department for Education;
 - h. the Department for Business, Energy and Industrial Strategy;
 - i. the police;
 - j. the Charity Commission;
 - k. the Boarding Schools Association, or
 - l. the Independent Schools Inspectorate
24. Advice: Staff are strongly encouraged to seek advice before reporting a concern to anyone external. In most cases you should not find it necessary to alert anyone external but before you do, as well as considering the internal help and support available which is identified above, please seek external advice from:
- a. Protect: If you have any concerns about disclosing a suspected wrongdoing the independent whistleblowing charity, Protect, operates a confidential helpline. Staff can call 020 7404 6609 for advice.
 - b. NSPCC: The NSPCC whistleblowing helpline is available for staff who do not feel able to raise concerns regarding child protection failures internally. Staff can call 0800 028 0285 (8.00 am to 8.00 pm Monday to Friday) or email help@nspcc.org.uk.
 - c. The Modern Slavery helpline: The Modern Slavery helpline is available for staff who do not feel able to raise concerns about modern slavery internally. Staff can call on 0800 0121 700.
25. The media: You should under no circumstances approach a commercial body or the media with details of the suspected wrongdoing. If you approach any such body and / or where your concern is disclosed in a malicious manner or for personal gain, the protection given to you by this procedure may be lost. Additionally, the School may consider this to be gross misconduct and disciplinary action may be taken against you.
26. Queries: If you have any queries about this procedure, you should contact the Bursar.
