

Item 7	SECTION 12. Prep Reimbursement for Traveling Teachers:
191
2.21 TA	Subd. 1. Teachers who travel to more than one site are assigned to more than one school in a given day, shall receive preparation, lunch and instructional time in the same proportion as that of a teacher with an equivalent assignment at a single location. Adequate time shall be given for travel from one location to another. Subd. 2. Teachers who travel and receive additional annual FTE will not be assigned before school or after school supervision duties but may still be required to attend meetings. Subd 3. Teachers who do not have prep time equivalent to 5 minutes for every 25 minutes instruction will be compensated for the loss prep time an additional .2 annual FTE pro-rated for the period of time they work that schedule. Subd. 4 Teachers who qualify for Subd. 3 and exceed 12 minutes of missed prep per day for the semester shall receive an additional $3,500. Alternating days or quarter only assignments shall be compensated at $1,750.

Item 9	ARTICLE VI Section 9. Overloads: An Overload is defined as instruction within one school program that exceeds the number of minutes of class instruction fully covered by available preparation (prep) time. When a teacher teaches between school programs Article V, Section 12 applies. When a teacher accepts an overload assignment, he/she the
191	employee shall receive additional compensation for the length of that assignment. Compensation for one semester shall be $2,000 per semester plus calculation for lost prep time per semester for the addition of a current course offering or $3,500 per semester plus calculation for lost prep time per semester for the addition of a new course offering.
2.21 TA	