Bulldogs are saying...

My son enjoys coming to Ulrich. He is in advanced classes and they have great teachers who have high expectations for the students. The leadership of this school is very commendable as well, from the program they have for the kids. You can see it from their Culture of Caring program by students and teachers. I am very well pleased.

PARENT

In my 11th year at Ulrich, I love working here now just as much as when I started. The teachers, admin and staff are truly family, and some of the most caring and kind people I've met. I'm excited to go to work everyday because I love my job, but more than that, I love my Bulldog family
