MEDIA ADVISORY

EPA ADMINISTRATOR REGAN'S VISIT TO MARSHALL ELEMENTARY HIGHLIGHTS INVESTMENT IN CLEAN SCHOOL BUSES FOR OCSD

ORANGEBURG, S.C. – On Monday, February 12, 2024, U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) Administrator Michael S. Regan will travel to South Carolina to celebrate funding for new clean school buses delivered to the state. South Carolina received $65.9 million for 168 new school buses from President Biden's Investing in America Agenda, which is delivering environmental benefits for all, growing the economy from the middle out and bottom up, and creating jobs and opportunities for communities across the country.

The Administrator will join Congressman Jim Clyburn, local officials, and students to discuss the impacts of these investments and the nation's transition to a clean transportation future.

During the visit to Marshall Elementary School, Administrator Regan will deliver remarks highlighting the 20 new electric school buses coming to Orangeburg County School District, take questions from the press, and join students and officials for an electric school bus ride.

All portions of the event are open to press. Space on the bus ride is limited and will be available on a first-come, first-serve basis.
