

On Monday, March 4 and Tuesday, March 5th students in grades K-6 will partake in the Say Something presentation teaching students to recognize the warning signs of someone at risk of hurting themselves or others and how to “say something” to a trusted adult to get help. The Say Something curriculum develops social-emotional learning (SEL) skills and provides students with life-saving content. All students in grades K-12 will be participating in Say Something Week, held nationally March 4-8, as the Lowellville Local School District recognizes the week. Please note, there is no school for students on Friday, March 8th. The schedule for the week is as follows:

Monday, March 4th: SAY SOMETHING Presentation.

Tuesday, March 5th: SAY SOMETHING Presentation.

7-12 Peer Leaders help students take the Upstander Pledge

Wednesday, March 6th: WEAR GREEN for UNITY

Thursday, March 7th: 7-12 Peer Leaders help students thank a Trusted Adult

Friday, March 8th: No School for Students- Thank a trusted adult in your community.
