

Sequatchie County High School to Present Play

Sequatchie County High School will present “TUMBLEWEED” written by Brent Holland and produced with permission from Off the Wall Press on Friday April 28th and Saturday April 29th at 7:00 CST. at the Sequatchie High School Auditorium. Admission will be $5.00 for adults and $3.00 for students at the door. Advance tickets can be purchased at Citizens Bank and Mountain Valley Bank.

The play, a western, focuses on the exploits of Calvin Tanner who has come to Bannack, Montana in search of gold, but gets caught up in something he didn't bargain for forcing him to be a hero and the new sheriff. Follow Calvin “Tumbleweed’ Tanner as he fights for justice, and love in the heart of Montana during 1864.

The cast includes Connor Bryant, Dakota Hinders, Jacob Lockhart, Xander Goss, Brayden Johnson, Baron Cribbs, Caleb Fletcher, Karly McDowell, Brandon Presto, Gabby Snyder, Lily Greer, Gabrielle Ramirez, Alayna McAfee, Alli Bizzel, Riley Bickford, Megan Brooks, Esteban Rios, Zoe Lewis, Emily Patterson Haven Curtis and Alex McGowan. Megan Chapman serves as the student director.

Natalie Kimbell who has directed plays at the high school for 40 years has announced that this will be her last play production. She is not retiring from teaching , but she is passing her job as the theater instructor to John Lennon who is a professional theater teacher. Kimbell has directed over 60 productions in her teaching career. There will be a reception for her on Saturday, April 29th from 3:00 to 5:00 before TumbleWeeds presentation. She wants to encourage any former student who has ever worked with her in a play to come for the reception and the show.
