Discussion Items

1:30-1:50	20	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Revised Admin Budget Proposal <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ Admin addressed that there is some disagreement about waiver language ○ Stressed that priority is to keep people and that no one will be losing their job ○ Refer to Eldorado 2024-2025 Budget Summary.docx for details on changes ○ English - Question regarding talking with current Testing Coordinator. Response from Admin that this is an ongoing process. ○ Likely no overages available next year ○ Are resources being allocated supporting At Risk Students? ○ Principals are At Will Employees. Not protected by a contract. ○ Funding proposal is meant to support everyone and not to take anything away from teachers. It's not teachers vs. admin. We're in this together. ○ The main ask is that instead of a .5 Admin funded through At Risk funds it will be a 1.0 admin This would shift the current 1.1

		allocation for FTE overages to .5 FTE. Previous version suggested .9 for overages. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ○ There is a distant possibility that depending on enrollment EHS may have funding restored or similar to last year's level. ○ PE: Pointing out that losing 1 admin might have a greater impact on our At Risk population than multiple .2s ○ Counseling: ○ Social Studies: How do you access Juan's Calendar? Go to google calendar and search for people. ○ Special Ed: Clarification on Testing Coordinator position. This is not a short term position. Because it is tied to discretion it exists until that position is vacated.
