Mrs. Intile's friends have been working hard to practice daily routines, make new friends, and learn through exploring all of the different objects in their interest areas. The students love using the musical instruments to practice beat and tempo and enjoy singing and moving throughout the day!

Mrs. Gulla's class had so much fun on Talk Like a Pirate Day! They read, How I Became a Pirate, made treasure maps, went on a treasure hunt, and had a special snack...

Mrs. DeRosa and Mrs. Hazelet's class playing "Can you find it?" during small group time!

In room 102, Mrs. Scott and Mrs. Shertenlieb, sang "Mat Man" while they built his body. They did it as a class and the 2nd time each student had a body part. They used this information to make their self portraits to be hung in the hallway.

Mrs. Cooper's Choice Time

Mrs. Stolte and Mrs. Winters class worked on identifying, naming and decorating the first letter of their names during small group time.

Mrs. Stolte and Mrs. Winters class read "The Color Monster" during Read Aloud and then used felt pieces to retell the story as well as sort and classify the color monster's feelings using the color wheel at small group time.
