

Students Fly Like Ospreys

Bolles Middle School Bartram Campus sixth grade students took a class field trip to the University of North Florida's Osprey Challenge Course Jan. 26. Advisors joined the sixth graders as the group climbed and ziplined their way through the course, working together to problem-solve along the way.

The high ropes adventure course opened in 2012 and is operated by the university's Campus Recreation.