

41 Phenoms Signed to College Athletics

It was a day of celebration and pride as 41 local high school seniors from Bishop Kenny High School, Bolles and Episcopal School of Jacksonville took center stage on Wednesday, Feb. 7, 2024, for National Signing Day ceremonies that marked the next chapter in their educational journeys. These students were cheered by their respective schools for cultivating not only a strong education, but also committing to continue their athletic careers at the next collegiate level.

Leila Bata with Zee Curtis and Presley Wolfe

Ethan Binns with Kellen Padgett and Sara Wasserman

Garrison Butler with Christin Hills and Noah Cole

Aidan Lynch with Garrett Watterson, Ella Stakem and Hilary Englert

J.D. Matson with Jacob Campen

Anthony Whittall with Elizabeth Erlandsdottir and Keira Scott

THE BOLLES SCHOOL

Leila Bata, Amherst College, cross country/track and field | Ethan Binns, Grove City College, lacrosse | Garrison Butler, University of Cincinnati, football | Jacob Campen, Denison University, lacrosse | Noah Cole, Gardner-Webb University, football | Zee Curtis, Florida State University, track and field | Hilary Englert, Furman University, women's basketball | Elizabeth Erlandsdottir, Georgia Institute of Technology, swimming | Christin Hills, Washington & Lee University, football | Aidan Lynch, Middlebury College, baseball | J.D. Matson, Washington & Lee University, football and lacrosse | Kellen Padgett, Embry-Riddle Aeronautical University, lacrosse | Keira Scott, University of Northern Colorado, swimming | Ella Stakem, Belmont Abbey College, women's basketball | Sara Wasserman, Georgetown University, rowing | Garrett Watterson, Sewanee: The University of the South, men's basketball | Anthony Whittall, University of South Carolina, swimming | Presley Wolfe, Tulane University, track and field