

Foxes Class Poem

Welcome, welcome, one and all,
To Foxes Class, we stand tall.
With eager hearts and curious minds,
Let's embark on a journey that binds.

In Foxes Class, kindness is key,
Helping each other, you and me.
With open hearts, let's lend a hand,
Creating friendships, that eternally stand.

We'll make mistakes, it's part of the deal,
But in this safe haven, we'll learn to heal.
For every stumble, we'll find our way,
Growing stronger together, come what may.

So, welcome, dear students, feel the delight,
As we journey through each day, so bright.
Let's cherish every moment, big and small,
For in Foxes Class, we have it all.
