The Clara Barton-Hawthorne Parent Teacher Association is presenting the Fall Festival for the school's families on October 27 at Clara Barton Elementary School. The festival will feature fun fall activities, contests, prizes, and food. Guests are encouraged to wear their favorite costumes to enhance the fall atmosphere.

Families will have a blast jumping in the bounce house, making magic wands, and painting pumpkins. They can participate in a scavenger hunt to win prizes and vote for their favorite pumpkin decorated by CBH staff in the Staff Pumpkin Wars. Students can receive extra tickets to vote in the Pumpkin Wars by bringing a non-perishable food item to stock the Husky Hutch food pantry.

Guests are encouraged to come hungry as there will be food trucks serving meals and snacks available, including popcorn and cotton candy. The food trucks include Namaste Chai, serving beverages, samosas, and naan tacos; North Brain Freeze shaved ice; and Brew Catering, serving mac and cheese and pulled pork sandwiches.

The CBH Fall Festival is sponsored by The Title Company, Arrow Advisors, and Folkways.
