After spending much of 2022 on a humanitarian mission to Ukraine, Fargo resident Mark J. Lindquist will get to stay a little closer to home on Monday, December 19. Lindquist will speak to the students at Davies High School to present his message of about how Americans can rise to the challenge of supporting freedom.

This July, Lindquist performed with his jazz big band in a bunker concert in Kharkiv, Ukraine just 12 miles away from Russian enemy lines as part of his mission in the warzone of Ukraine. He formed partnerships with volunteers in Ukraine to identify and meet the needs of the people there.

Lindquist, who was born in Seoul, South Korea before being adopted and raised on a farm in Minnesota, is a US Air Force and Afghanistan War veteran. Since beginning as a motivational speaker, Lindquist has spoken for some of the largest companies in the world, performed for some of the largest crowds in America, including NFL, NBA, and MLB games, and has performed for the President of the United States.
