Trollwood Performing Arts School, a program of Fargo Public Schools, is a unique youth arts education and leadership organization. Trollwood offers performing and production arts education opportunities for students from kindergarten through graduated high school seniors. There is something for everyone at Trollwood! Students who register before April 1 can save up to $50 in registration fees.

Trollwood offers a full array of classes, performing opportunities, and technical theater experiences for every skill level, from elementary to middle school to high school. Between Trollwood Academy for high schoolers and Totally Trollwood Academy for middle schoolers during the month of June, it offers more than 40 classes across a wide variety of disciplines, including acting, vocal performance, dance, improvisation, filmmaking, technical theatre and more. Elementary schoolers in Grades K-4 can participate in one-week sessions of ArtSpark.

Trollwood also offers performing opportunities for high schoolers in its Mainstage Musical and Trollwood Players productions and middle schoolers with Totally Trollwood Musical and Trollwood Children's Theatre productions. After being postponed for a year, the Mainstage Musical production of Singin' in the Rain is set to return to the Bluestem Amphitheater this summer. The Trollwood Players will present The Best of Sketch Comedy II. The Totally Trollwood Musical is Disney's Frozen Jr. And Trollwood Children's Theatre will perform Disney's 101 Dalmatians Kids.

Upcoming summer arts programming will help students rekindle their affection for the arts, boost their creativity, and pave the way for their future, whether they aspire to pursue a career in the arts or any other professional opportunities. Students will connect, learn, and have fun with their friends and favorite faculty/artistic teams through the following programs:
