Ben Franklin Middle School will host its annual Holiday Concert on Thursday, December 22 in the school's gymnasium. The school's student body and staff will congregate to witness the performance.

The concert will feature holiday themed selections performed by many of the school's musical ensembles, including the eighth grade band, orchestra, and choir; Jazz Band; Crystal Strings; Eighth Street Singers; and The Roobinators.

The Holiday Concert is part of Ben Franklin's "Cheermeister Week," marking the final week of school before winter break. The week includes a door decorating contest and dress up days, including ugly sweater, favorite holiday movie character, holiday pajamas, and holiday hat.
