Horace Mann-Roosevelt Elementary School is hosting the HMR Explore Music Night, a full night of music performances and activities, on Thursday, April 27. Many areas of Roosevelt Elementary School will be used for students and their families to listen to student and community musician performances and attend exploration sessions for students to experience music in a variety of ways.

Performances will be held in the gymnasium on the following schedule:

5:50 p.m. 2nd-5th Graders sing
6:00 p.m. Heather & Thistle Pipes & Drums
6:30 p.m. NDSU University Chamber Singers
7:35 p.m. Big & Hungry

Exploration sessions will occur in the cafeteria, library and various classrooms. Sessions will be ten minutes in length and include a Name That Instrument Sound game, playing boomwhackers, a harp concert, and World Instrument Bingo. Sessions will run from 6:15-6:25 p.m., 6:50-7:00 p.m., 7:05-7:15 p.m., and 7:20-7:30 p.m.

The theme of the night is “Music is Always There,” which is also a song by Teresa Jennings students have been studying. The chorus of the song is “Wherever I go, whatever I do, whatever I am, whatever I’ll be, Through the joy and the strife, there’s a rhythm in life and music is always there...for me!” All 386 HMR students and their families have been invited to attend.

The event is funded by the HMR Parent-Teacher Association and local music stores have donated prizes for the event.
