Fargo Public Schools' new teachers will get a taste of fame as they walk the red carpet and take their first steps into the District on their way to New Teacher Orientation on Wednesday, August 3 at the FPS District Office.

Current FPS staff will line the red carpet to give the new hires a warm welcome of clapping and cheering as they enter the building. Each new teacher will be given a gift bag at the beginning of their carpet walk and the individuals lining the carpet will fill their bags with goodies.

This is the second red carpet walk for new teachers this summer. A previous group of new teachers was greeted with glitz and glam on July 13.
