

What is the School's Role in Supporting My Student's Success?

Trexler is served by a schoolwide Title I program. This means that school staff work to improve the school's educational program to increase the achievement of all students, particularly those who are low achieving and thus could benefit from extra supports or services.

Title I schools are responsible for the following

- Involve parents in the planning, review, and improvement of Title I programs, including the school parent and family engagement policy
- Develop jointly, with the parents of participating students, a school-parent compact focused on academic achievement
- Inform parents in an understandable language and format
- Offer parent meetings at various times or in various formats
- Provide information to parents about the state standards, curriculum, and assessments and how parents can monitor their child's progress
- Build parent capacity by coordinating and integrating parent programs and activities with other federal, state, and local programs

Every Student Succeeds Act

In December 2015, the US Congress reauthorized the Elementary and Secondary Act (ESEA) of 1965. The new law named Every Student Succeeds Act focuses on the clear goal of fully preparing all students for success in college and careers.

What is My Role in Supporting My Student's Success?

Parents are an important part of the Title I team and are partners with the school in helping their students achieve. As the parent of a child in a Title I school, you have the right to:

- Be engaged in the planning and implementation of the parent and family engagement policy and program in your school
- Ask to read the progress reports on your child and school
- Request information about the professional qualifications of your child's teacher(s) and/or paraprofessionals including the degrees and certifications held, and whether the teacher is certified in their respective area of instruction
- Help to decide if Title I is meeting your child's needs and offer suggestions for improvement.
- Help develop your school's plan for how parents and schools can work together
