Elementary School

Feed-A-Pig Fundraiser

Maritime Academy was awarded 1st place status in the TruMark Financial's Feed-A-Pig Financial Literacy Fundraiser.

Cross Country

Cross country had a wonderful season! Cadets worked hard and consistently improved their times every day. At practice and during meets, they always gave it their all and demonstrated great sportsmanship!

Candy Fundraiser

Our annual Candy Sale Fundraiser was a success with almost 200 boxes sold. We'd like to congratulate our top sellers.

- 1st Place, Apple iPad: Paige McDonough (6D)
- 2nd Place, Apple AirPods: Luciana Humenik (1A)
- 3rd Place, $50 Target gift card: Smerlyn de la Cruz (8A) and Liam Lineman (3C)

Candy For Navy

Our Annual Candy for the Navy fundraiser has started. The school is collecting unopened candy, basic necessities, and monetary donations to create ditty bags for veterans, active service members, and Merchant Marines.

Halloween Parade in Elementary School

October in Elementary School

Ms. Giacino, Ms. Wenger, and Ms. Tizerwas were all Mystery Readers this month. Ms. Giacino's class did a social skills lesson on communication. Mrs. Goldberg and Mrs. Rizzo are proud of the 7th grade Coffee Crew. Fall drinks were a hit this season!

High School

Blood Drive

Maritime held it's annual Blood Drive!

Post Graduation News

Graduate George Funke graduated the USCG Boot Camp

Volleyball News

Our volleyball team is victorious once again!

National Honor Society

National Honor Society held its induction meeting in October.

Broad Street Run

Mr. Mattioni participated in the Broad Street Run and ran 10 miles in 2 hours 30 minutes!

Manor College

On Thursday, October 28th, Ms. Gara accompanied a group of seniors to tour Manor College in Jenkintown. The students participated in multiple presentations from academic and student services. Dr. Joseph Gillespie, Vice President of Enrollment Management, helped our cadets feel right at home by making meaningful connections between Maritime and Manor and pointing out how both institutions strive to provide individualized support for their students. Three seniors have already been accepted to Manor College and are considering enrolling in the fall.

Halloween at the High School

Halloween Dress-Down Day was followed by a pumpkin decorating contest and our Fall Fest. Everyone had a blast!
