SUMMER 2024

ALOHA 'AINA ACADEMY SUMMER WORKSHOP:
HUMAN RIGHTS, EQUITY, AND SOCIAL JUSTICE IN THE FOOD SYSTEM
SIX DAYS - JUNE 11-13 & JUNE 18-20, 1:00-4:00 PM

ONLINE

Immerse yourself in the transformative Aloha 'Aina Academy Summer Workshop: Human Rights, Equity, and Social Justice in the Food System, where educators from across Hawai'i come together to explore sustainable food systems and foster 'Aina and Project-Based Learning in their classrooms.

This engaging, online six-day professional development course dives deep into food justice and equity, offering practical, hands-on strategies for creating standards-based learning experiences rooted in Na Hopena A'o, Aloha 'Aina, and Kupu Hou's ASPIRE Framework. Discover how to design impactful student investigations, projects, and assessments, while connecting with experts and resources in the field of Human Rights, Equity, and Social Justice in the Food System.

Perfect for educators seeking to amplify student voice, immerse learners in 'Aina-based learning, and address food (in)security and food equity in their classrooms, this workshop promises to enrich your teaching practice and inspire meaningful change in the next school year.
